Revised 8/25

Interra Credit Union Privacy Notice

FACTS

WHAT DOES INTERRA CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- account balances and payment history
- credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons Interra chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Interra share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions?

Call 574.534.2506 or 888.432.2848 or go to www.interracu.com

Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	Interra Credit Union PO Box 727 Goshen, IN 46527

What we do
How does Interra protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. In addition, we use “cookies” for security purposes with our online transactions and web based applications and communications.
How does Interra collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you ■ open an account or apply for a loan ■ make deposits or withdrawals from your account or make a wire transfer ■ seek advice about your investments We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can’t I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only ■ sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness ■ affiliates from using your information to market to you ■ sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions
Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. ■ Our affiliates include Members Financial Management Center, Inc.
Nonaffiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. ■ Interra does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.
Joint marketing	A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. ■ Our joint marketing partners include companies offering products or services from the following categories: insurance, investments, credit cards, loans/student loans, bill pay and other electronic services.

Other important information

With regard to persons who use or obtain our products and services for their own personal, family, or household purposes, this Notice should be read in conjunction with Interra Credit Union’s Online & Mobile Privacy Notice.

View Interra's Online & Mobile Privacy Policy.